

KNIGHT

MCMLXIII

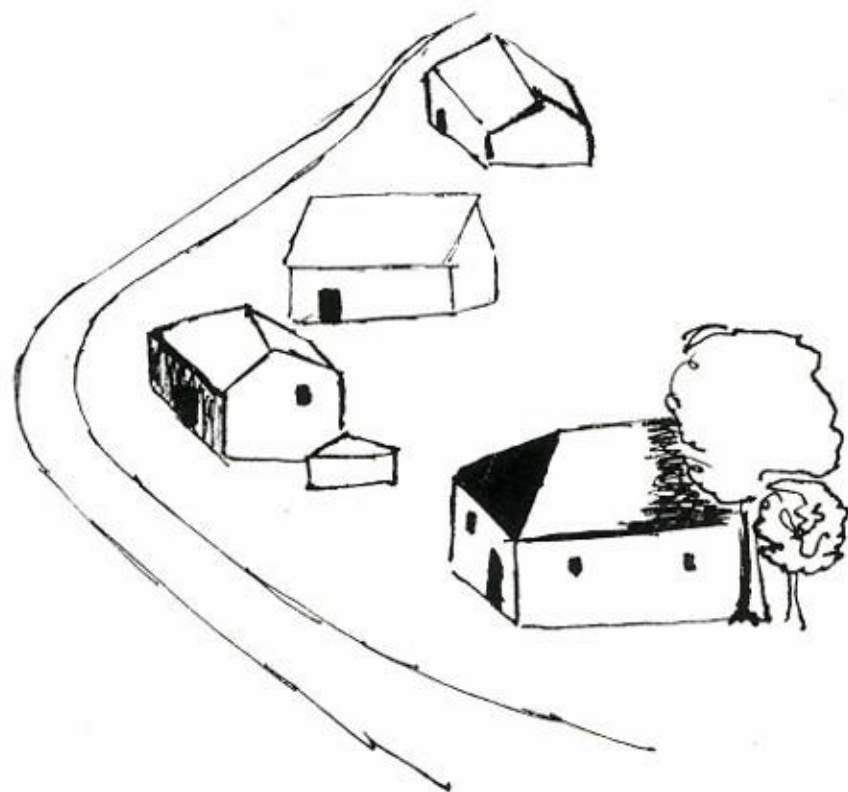

1963

The Knight

Van Buren School
Van Buren, Ohio

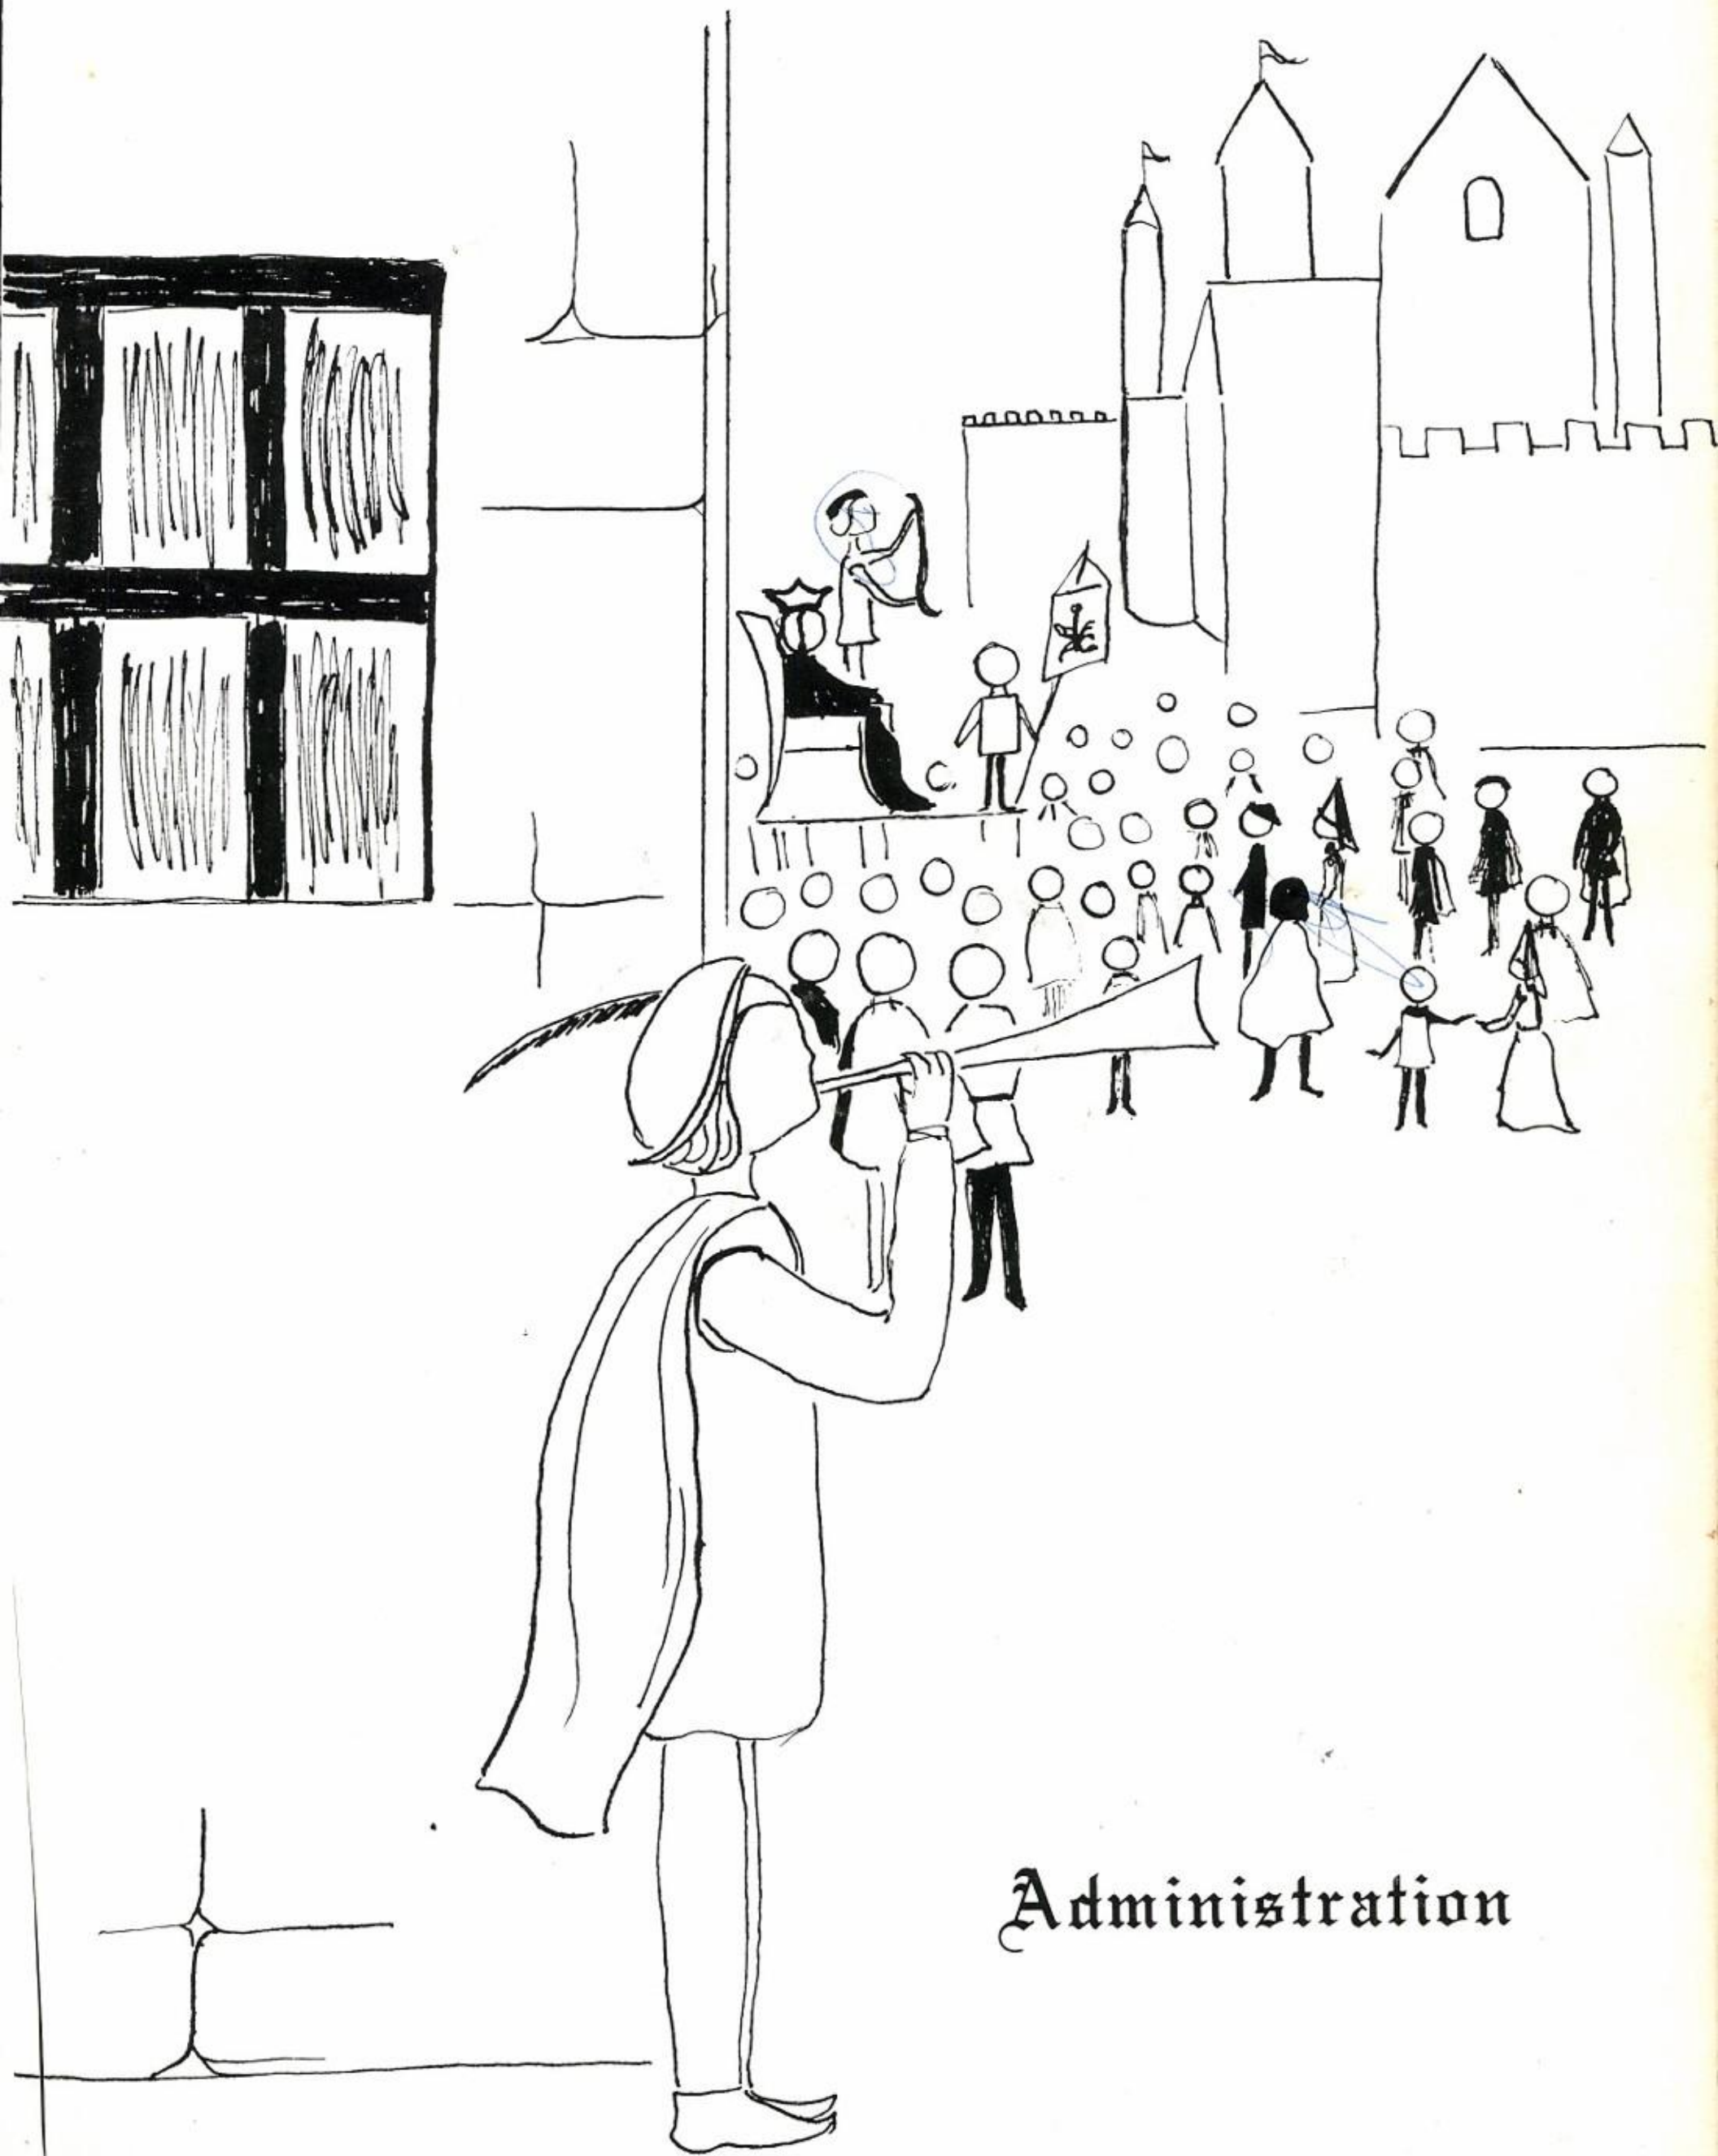

Dedication

During the past six years Mr. Cooper has been not only our teacher but our friend as well. His help and encouragement have contributed greatly to the happiness and success of our school life.

The long hours, sometimes unappreciated, of work on this and other yearbooks are to be recognized.

The class of 1963 hereby dedicates this KNIGHT to Mr. Milton Cooper.

History of the Class of '63

In September 1959 thirty-four members enrolled in Van Buren High School to be known as "green freshies." Three new faces were seen; they belonged to Jim Schwab, Diane Cole and Sandy and Sharon Schoonover. Our officers for the year were: President, Chuck Coykendale; Vice-President, Ray Amos; Secretary, Jane Werner; Treasurer, Karen Bassett and Student Council, Alan Tong. During the year we sponsored a dance and spent a very pleasant and happy year together.

Our Sophomore year we entered school as "second basemen," feeling a little wiser and bolder. Carole Trautman and Karen Lammers were newcomers to our class. We elected our officers to be: President, Ray Amos; Vice-President, Chuck Coykendale; Secretary, Jane Werner; Treasurer, Cathie Bishop and Student Council, Pat Poole. That year we sponsored another dance and a car wash.

The next fall, as we were summoned to take up our duties as "third basemen," we welcomed Tom Heavrin, Bill Buck, Jean Vanderhoff and Linda Arnold to help us. Our officers for this year were: President, Cathie Bishop; Vice-President, Alan Tong; Secretary, Terri Green; Treasurer, Diane Cole and Student Council, Alan Tong. We all felt our Junior year was a success with the presentation of our play, TEEN TIME, our dance, winning the magazine drive, sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom, serving at a banquet and receiving those wonderful class rings.

Seniors at last, we found ourselves sliding in at home, so much different from our first appearance as freshmen. Our advisors, Mrs. Scothorn and Mr. Cooper guided us through a happy, successful and very busy year. Our officers were: President, Alan Tong; Vice-President, Ray Amos; Secretary, Jane Werner; Treasurer, Pat Poole and Student Council, Tom Heavrin and Gary Taylor. During the year we welcomed Susie Ames to make our enrollment complete at thirty-six. Some of our many activities included: our class play, PHANTOM OF THE HIGH SCHOOL, a successful dance, selling programs and cake tickets at the basketball games, serving at two banquets and attending the Prom given by the Juniors. We chose our class colors to be red and white with a red and white carnation as our flower. Both commencement and baccalaureate were held on May 26. Later that same week we left on our class trip to New York and Washington, D.C.

Honor Society

Terri Green, Ann Ensman, Jane Werner, Sara Baker, Pat Poole, Miss Bryant.

All Juniors and Seniors maintaining a B average for five semesters are eligible for membership in the National Honor Society. These students are then rated on their character, leadership, scholarship and service.

During the year social meetings were held in various schools in Hancock County, and in May, Van Buren was host to the annual banquet, where the new members were initiated.

In February Miss Bryant, our advisor, announced the new Junior members of the Van Buren Chapter of the National Honor Society. They were: Cheryl Daugherty, Peggy Uhl, Janie Luke, Chuck Coykendale, Al Tong, Martha Wolfe, Mike Winzler, and Gloria Heavrin.

Homecoming Court

On October 12, 1962, the 12th annual Homecoming was held at Van Buren. Jane Werner was crowned queen by Alan Tong, co-captain, and presented with red carnations. Pat Poole, her Maid of Honor, received white mums. Senior attendants, Cathie Bishop and Jean Vanderhoff, were also given mums. Janie Luke and Pat Miller were chosen Junior attendants. They, too, were presented with appropriate flowers.

Even our defeat by Cory Rawson failed to dull the high spirit of the evening. After the game, the Senior class sponsored a record hop which was held in the gym.
